

San Jacinto Battleground Conservancy

Dr. Caroline Castillo Crimm

The San Jacinto Battleground Conservancy cordially invites you to hear Dr. Caroline Castillo Crimm speak on "Torn Loyalties: The Conflict for Tejanos at the Battle of San Jacinto"

Dr. Crimm, a retired Associate Professor of History from Sam Houston State University, has written several books and articles detailing Petra Vela Kenedy, the De León family, and historical novels about eighteenth century Spanish and Mexican Texas. She is renowned as a unique and entertaining speaker in high demand by educational, historical and community groups in Texas and across the nation.

Known for her writings in "creative history" and dialogue, Dr. Crimm is passionate about sharing the history of Tejano Texas. Her travels have inspired her to write novels that provide insight into life in early Texas and the Hispanic history that has made the United States what it is today.

Dr. Crimm has earned teaching awards including:
Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation Award (2004),
Mary Jon and J.P. Bryan Texas History Teacher Award
(2003), and Excellence in Teaching Sam Houston State University (1999)
